Storytelling tool

Storyspine – Our Future City Story
I/we dream of a future city where a typical day will look like this...	Describe in a maximum of 4 sentences how a normal day at home/work/travelling looks like from your perspective and with the selected challenge in mind (energy efficiency / low carbon / systems optimisation / transport).
To solve the challenge of (insert selected challenge that came out of the morning exercise), many actions were undertaken in the first 10 years...	Describe in max. 4 sentences what actions took place, or what policies were designed, by whom, including your own
And these actions were undertaken in the last 10 years...	Describe in max. 4 sentences what actions took place, or which policies were designed, by whom, including your own.
and the following social science and humanities research proved particularly valuable to achieve the change ...	Describe in max. 4 sentences what kind of research by what kind of researchers was undertaken with what kind of key outputs.
This research was of great importance to... because...	Describe in max. 4 sentences what you (in round 1, individual writing) or all stakeholders (in round 2, collaborative writing) benefitted from the research listed above, why and how.

Adapted from
Mourik, R., Robison, R., & Breukers, S. (2017). Storytelling - SHAPE ENERGY facilitation guidelines for interdisciplinary and multi-stakeholder processes (p. 18). SHAPE ENERGY.